

Article 6. Contract type: Lump-sum

Article 7. Contract performance period

Contract performance period: 60days

Article 8. Contract amendments and supplements

1. The adjustment and supplement of the Contract may be made in specific cases and shall be agreed in writing by the two parties.
2. In case where the work items arise outside the scope of the Contract, Party A and Party B shall negotiate as the basis for signing the Contract appendix.

Article 9. Contract termination

1. Party A or Party B may terminate the Contract if either Party basically violates the Contract as follows:
 - a) Party B fails to perform part or the whole contents of the Contractual work within the period stated in the Contract or within the period extended by Party A;
 - b) Party B goes bankrupt or dissolves;
 - c) Other acts (if any).
2. In case Party A terminates the Contract in accordance with clause 1 (a) of this Article, Party A may enter into a Contract with another bidder to perform the part of the Contract not implemented by Party B. Party B shall be responsible for compensating Party A for the excess costs of implementing this Contract part. However, Party B shall continue to implement the part of the Contract that it is carrying out and be responsible for the warranty of that Contract part.
3. In case Party A terminates the Contract in accordance with clause 1 (b) of this Article, Party A shall not be liable for any compensation. Termination of this Contract does not lose the rights of Party A to be entitled under the Contract and the law.

Article 10. Validity of goods

Party B shall state the origin of the goods; marks and labels of the products and accompanying documents to prove the validity of the goods and shall comply with current standards and regulations in the countries or territories where the goods originate.

Article 11. Supply, transport, inspection and testing of goods

1. Party B must provide the goods and deliver the documents and instruments (attached) according to the schedule stated in the requests.
2. Requirements for the goods transport: The goods shall be transported to factory.
3. Party A or the representative of Party A has the right to inspect and test the goods to ensure that the goods own the technical specifications in accordance with the requirements of the Contract. In cases where the goods do not conform to the technical specifications under the Contract, Party A shall have the right to refuse, and Party B shall be responsible for replacing or adjusting to meet the requirements of technical specifications. In case Party B is not able to replace or adjust the inappropriate goods, Party A shall have the right to carry out the replacement or adjustment, if necessary; all related risks and costs shall be on Party B's account. The inspection and testing of the goods by Party A shall not lead to the exemption of Party B's warranty obligations or other obligations under the Contract.

Article 12. Goods copyright and insurance

1. Party B shall be fully responsible for any damages due to the third party's claim of infringement of intellectual property rights related to the goods that Party B has provided to Party A.
